JULIA from TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA

Act 4 Scene 4

Character's age: 20's/30's

1 A virtuous gentlewoman, mild and beautiful!
 I hope my master's suit will be as cold,
 Since she respects my mistress' love so much.
 Alas, how love can trifle with itself!

5 Here is her picture: let me see; I think,
 If I had such a tire, this face of mine
 Were full as lovely as this of hers:
 And yet the painter flatter'd her a little,
 Unless I flatter with myself too much.

10 Her hair is auburn, mine is perfect yellow:
 If that be all the difference in his love,
 I'll get me such a coloured periwig.
 Her eyes are grey as glass and so are mine:
 Ay, but her forehead's low, and mine's high.

15 What should it be that he respects in her
 But I can make respective in myself.
 If this fond Love were not a blinded god?
 Come, shadow, come, and take this shadow up,
 For 'tis thy rival. O thou senseless form,

20 Thou shalt be worshipp'd, kissed, loved and adored!
 And, were there sense in his idolatry,
 My substance should be statue in thy stead.

25 I'll use thee kindly for thy mistress' sake,
That used me so; or else by Jove I vow,
I should have scratch'd out your unseeing eyes,
To make my master out of love with thee.!
